GOODS OUTPUT
IN U. S. HITS
HIGH FIGURE

Production Far Ahead of Last Year, Commerce
Department Says

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—If the nation's turnout of goods and services holds to the recent hot pace, it'll amount to a quarter of a trillion dollars a year—and call for higher arithmetic to keep it straight. The flood of goods produced and services rendered reached the annual rate of $248,000,000,000 in the second quarter of this year, a Commerce department report showed today.

That compares with totals of $231,636,000,000 for the whole of last year and $204,000,000 for the year before.

But there were at least a couple of thorns on the rose. The department noted that:

1. A major part of the swollen value merely reflected inflation—higher prices and wages. In consumer goods, especially, value—that is, prices—rose more than the quantity of things produced.

2. Industrial production—the output of factories and mines—was dipping in June as a result of shortages of material. But that was more than offset by increases in the value of farm products and of various services—by doctors, dentists, sales clerks, auto mechanics, etc.

Notable factors entering into the second quarter picture, as reported by the department, included:

Government spending rose more than $2,500,000,000 above the first quarter rate, chiefly due to European aid and state and local outlays for highways and other construction.

Private investment, on the other hand, dropped "somewhat, mostly due to a slowdown in the building of business inventories.

A moderate pickup appeared in consumer spending for personal use, which had tightened up some early in year. Bigger sales of furniture and home appliances, and larger outlays for laundry and shoe repair services were items in a $3,000,000,000 increase in the consumer spending rate.

Consumers had more left to spend after taxes, for one thing. The federal income tax cut which began showing up in May gave them an extra $3,000,000,000 a year to "blow" and still keep overall savings at a little higher rate than in the first quarter of 1948.

Four U. S. Airmen
Killed Overseas

RAVOTZHAUSEN, Germany, Aug. 24—Two American planes on the runway to blocked Berlin collided outside this American zone town today, killing four U. S. fliers.

Five American fliers have been killed previously in two accidents on the air run since the Russians blocked Berlin late in June.

The planes were two-engine C-47s. They plunged into cornfields around this village which is 14 miles northeast of Frankfurt. The planes were returning to Wiesbaden from Berlin, where they had delivered supplies.

Names of the victims were withheld pending notification of survivors.

The provost marshal at Hanau said that, according to German witnesses, the planes collided in the air over the village of Ravotzhausen, 14 miles northeast of Frankfurt.

Fairer Promotions
In Federal Offices,
Flemming Appeal

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—Arthur S. Flemming, new president of Ohio Wesleyan university, told a dinner honoring him last night that a fair promotion system would strengthen government service.

Flemming, who takes over his work at Delaware, O., Sept. 1, has been the Republican member of the three-man U. S. Civil Service commission for the last nine years.

More than 700 persons attended the testimonial to the 43-year-old Flemming's public service. Included were Frances Perkins, former secretary of labor and now a commission member, and Secretary of Defense James Forrestal.

Former President Herbert Hoover had reserved a place but was unable to attend and sent a message, as did Harry B. Mitchell, commission head, and Postmaster Jesse B. Donaldson.

In his address Flemming said:

"Promotions now are too much of a hit and miss proposition. There is still too much of an opportunity for two-by-four bureaucratic bosses to develop political kingdoms of their own at the expense of good government."

He also suggested:

More thorough investigation of the "character" of persons applying for career posts.

Discharge of incompetent government employees.

Raising salary ceilings for top positions from the present $10,000 to $15,000.

Making political office holders, not career employees, responsible for developing departmental policies and actions before congressional committees.

Improving the quality of supervisory employees.

Creating career assistant secretaries in each department.

Greater delegation of authority without "a continued insistence on proposed actions being reviewed by literally dozens of persons."

Canton Youth Among 4
Held For Stealing Car

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 24—A Canton, O., youth and two boys and a girl from Fairmont, W. Va., were held under $10,000 bond each today on charges of interstate transportation of a stolen automobile.

The Ohioans were Armando Marzella, 18. The others, registered in the Warren House, 17 Delbert East Campbell, 18, and Edwin Durr, 19.

U. S. Commissioner William A. Wells bound them over to a federal grand jury last Friday. He said the boys admitted the charges but the girl denied complicity.

DOVER, Aug. 24—A scheduled strike of local 1000 the CIO United Electrical Workers union against the Ohio Associated Textile Co. has been postponed until Aug. 30, union officials reported today. The union previously reported a strike call to support the CIO's demand for a 10-cent an hour wage increase.

Hungry Britons Stand In Ration Lines, Keener Finds

LONDON, Aug. 24—Food is scarce and the people look undernourished. Housewives stand in queues a block long to exchange coupons for rations.

All around you see patched clothing, even at the cocktail parties. The hotels haven't any heat, the rugs are wearing thin and the linen can't be replaced. The hacks are 10 years older but they managed to chug along.

Salem Boys In Ohio Fair Band

Three Salem High school boys have been recommended by Howard Pardee, instrumental music director, to participate in the activities of the Ohio State Fair All-boys band, which will play at the fair through Sept. 3.

Walter A. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Taylor of Hawley ave., will play the clarinet; James Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rhodes of Winona, Salem High drum major, the saxophone; and Edward Butcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Butcher of the Leontina rd., the French horn.

The 150-piece band, made up of boys from throughout Ohio, is directed by Louis E. Pete of Ashland. This week will be spent in practice but next week the boys will present a program twice each day at the fair.

"The boys, who are nattily attired in white and black, will be housed in tents on the fairgrounds. The state provides the living expenses for the two week event."

OHIO GUARDSMEN
STAGE BIG PARADE

CAMP ATTERBURY, Ind., Aug. 24—With Gov. Thomas J. Herbert of Ohio looking on, Ohio's National Guardsmen yesterday staged one of their largest military parades.

The parade of the 37th Infantry division and other units of the Ohio Guard took one hour and 25 minutes to pass the reviewing stand. The division band provided music as some 9,000 troops, vehicles and guns passed in review. Planes of the guard's air arm passed low over the reviewing stand.

Reviewing the parade with the governor were Maj. Gen. Leo M. Krueger, 37th division commander; Maj. Gen. Chester W. Noble, Ohio adjutant general; Brig. Gen. Cecil B. Whitcomb, assistant division commander; Brig. Gen. Kenneth Cooper, division artillery commander; and other Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army officers.

People stand in queues a block long waiting to cash in their coupons for rations. They get three ounces of butter per week. Think of getting along with three ounces of butter a week, scarcely any meat at all, with adulterated bread and no coupons with which to buy clothing.

At Prestwick, Scotland, the other evening at a cocktail party, I noticed a man with light spots on his face and a patch about his mouth.

U. S. CONSUL AIDE
HELD IN JERUSALEM

JERUSALEM, Aug. 24—The U. S. consul general here has protested to the Jewish governor of Jerusalem that the Stern gang kidnaped and mistreated an American consulate employee Sunday.

The consul general, John J. MacDonald, said the Sternists seized George P. Faro, a confidential clerk in the consulate and held him for seven hours, during which they handcuffed, blindfolded, slapped and questioned him.

An Israeli army source said the Sternists kidnaped Faro and called him a "damn British spy" because he bears a faint resemblance to a British detective who left Palestine four months ago.

After Faro, a 33-year-old resident of Granville, N. Y., was released by the Sternists he was held for another nine hours by Israeli military police. Asked why the army had held him so long a spokesman replied:

"To clear up such a mystery in nine hours is not bad police work."

MacDonald said he had filed a full report of the incident with the State department and had sent a strongly worded protest to Dr. Bernard Joseph, the Jewish military governor in Jerusalem.

Salem Youth Killed
In Roller Coaster
Mishap At Idora

Royal Godfrey Dinkelman, 20, son of Mrs. Marie Dinkelman of 1093 E. Ninth st., was killed instantly at 10:30 p. m. Monday when he fell from the "Wildcat," a roller coaster at Idora park, Youngstown.

He was rushed to the South Side hospital, where he was pronounced dead upon arrival. The cause of death, according to Mahoning County Coroner David Belinky, was multiple fractures, including a fractured skull.

Dinkelman was riding the coaster with two other Salem youths, Norman Smith, 20, and Carl Gartner, 21, of 808 E. Sixth st. They occupied separate seats, with Dinkelman in the middle position.

Gartner, who was riding behind Dinkelman, said he did not see his companion fall from the coaster. He said he had his eyes shut during the ride. The three were in the last section of the coaster.

Had Taken Several Rides
The fall occurred after they had taken several rides on the Wildcat. When the car pulled to a stop, it was found that Dinkelman was not in his seat. Gartner said he heard the youth scream during the ride, but didn't know he had fallen out.

The body was found on the ground among the wooden support structures. Police and workmen had to lift the badly broken body over the timbers to reach a police ambulance.

The body's position indicated that Dinkelman had fallen from the top of one of the coaster's dips, from a height estimated at 40 feet.

The three Salem youths had gone to Youngstown last night to attend a Naval Reserve training session at South High school and had gone to the amusement park after the meeting.

As far as is known, there has never been a death on the Wildcat roller coaster before.

Dinkelman was born in Salem on Oct. 8, 1927, the son of Mrs. Marie Fidler Dinkelman and the late Godfrey Dinkelman.

A resident of Salem all his life, he was a graduate of Salem High school in the class of 1945. He served in the Navy for one year. He recently enlisted in the Naval reserve as a fireman, second class.

He was an apprentice die maker at the Mulling plant and attended Salem Trades Extension classes.

Funeral On Thursday
In addition to his mother, he is survived by a half-sister, Mrs. George Cesewski of Chicago, and a half-brother, Robert Dinkelman of Akron. His father died seven years ago.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Arbaugh-Pearce funeral home in charge of Rev. John Bauman, assisted by Rev. George Beebe. Burial will be in Grandview cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening.

Tomorrow's festival is being sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges of Alliance to build funds for the band's trip to Columbus.

Today the Fairmount musicians are enjoying a day of swimming and picnicking at Congress lake. Director George made arrangements for the outing and announced that later the members will have a theater party.

Especially welcome to the children Sunday night will be the formal dedication of the new swimming pool on the home grounds. A gift of Owen L. Lewis, Alliance industrialist, the rectangular pool is 20 feet long and 30 feet wide. It ranges in depth from two and a half feet to nine and a half feet.

A water carnival staged by the Canton and Alliance Red Cross organizations will highlight the show. "Festivities will start at 1:30 p. m."

Mason said.

The 44 members of the home band and its leader will be guests of Governor Thomas Herbert at the fair and are to take an escorted tour of the state buildings. They plan to stay in the capital overnight.

Last Sunday the band concluded a series of popular summer concerts. Five programs were offered this season and the last was presented on the front lawn of the home grounds. Several hundred people from Salem, Alliance and nearby points heard a well-rounded set of selections by the full band, solos and duets. They also saw honored members receive band letters and pins presented by Director George.

Wheat To Europe
To Be Dedicated

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Aug. 24—Thirty carloads of wheat, Ohio farmers' gift from their golden harvest this year, will be dedicated to Europe's hungry Thursday at the state fairgrounds.

The wheat is part of a 50-car Ohio food train assembled during the past two months through the Christian Rural Overseas program. It is destined for Philadelphia for shipment to the war-ravaged countries.

The wheat comes from at least 30 counties and was gathered together for the shipment by farm organizations and churches. CROP, a national cooperative Christian church program, is sponsored by the Church World Service, Lutheran World Relief, and Catholic Relief.

The cars will be assembled on a Pennsylvania railroad siding at the fairgrounds for the Thursday ceremonies. State Agriculture Director Frank N. Farnsworth will be the principal speaker.

Others taking part will include Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus, Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, Rev. Wade H. Koons of Carey, Rev. Julian J. Schaefer of Lancaster, and Rev. Russell H. Hoy of Coahocken.

A second train, bearing milk products is scheduled to be assembled in the fall, CROP spokesmen said.

ENVOYS GIVEN
LENGTHY CHAT

U. S. Ambassador Smith
Says More Meetings
Will Be Held

(By Associated Press)
MOSCOW, Aug. 24—A qualified source said the Western envoys and Russia have reached a general area of agreement during talks climaxed early today by a four-hour and forty-minute Kremlin interview with Prime Minister Stalin.

The informant said technicalities lie ahead for adjustment but that these are not trifles and will require considerable negotiation.

U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith emerged from the Kremlin in a buoyant mood and declared "we're going to have more meetings." He added later:

"We're always optimistic. We expect the best and prepare for the worst."

The envoys have been trying since late July to find bases for lifting the land blockade Russian imposed on Berlin and for four-power talks on Germany and perhaps other problems in Europe.

Hopeful of Agreement
The informant said the seven Kremlin conferences, two of which included Stalin, have a "fair" chance of resulting in a solid agreement. He said prospects are far better today than they were at this time yesterday before Smith, French Ambassador Yves Chataigneau and British Envoy Frank Roberts saw Stalin.

"Some progress" has been made, the source said.

He declared there is no cause for pessimism.

The source said the western powers and the Soviets now have reduced their terms to the "lowest denominator." Had no progress been made last night and early today, he added, the current series of conversations would have ended.

"New Ideas" Studied
(Whitehall sources in London said Stalin introduced certain "new ideas" which offer hope for an East-West settlement in Berlin.)

Smith had given a "no comment" reply to newsmen after previous meetings.

It was learned on excellent authority that the three Western envoys took their case to Stalin after a snag developed in recent meetings with Molotov.

It was the second session the Soviet prime minister attended. The previous one was Aug. 22. Molotov was the ranking Russian official at the July 31 and Aug. 6, 9, 12 and 16th meetings.

Last night's meeting opened in the Kremlin at 9 P. M. and was believed to have been the longest talk Stalin ever has had with foreign representatives. It exceeded by one hour the longest previous session in the current Kremlin talks, which began July 31.

Smith said last night's session was interrupted only for "tea and cakes."

Blind E. Liverpool Vet

ALLIANCE, Aug. 24—Ted Petthel, 35-year old blind World War II veteran from East Liverpool, will be among the many veteran students to attend Mount Union college this fall.

During the summer, Petthel has been attending high school classes in East Liverpool as a refresher following his eight years' absence from the classroom. Ted lost his sight three years ago while on maneuvers in the desert with an anti-aircraft unit.

While at Mount Union, Petthel will live in the dormitory nearest the classrooms, and will be aided by his knowledge of Braille, sound recorders for his class lectures, a government-paid reader who will read his texts aloud, and many other devices for use by the blind.

For Grandma Moses Life Began At 72

By NEA Service

EAGLE BRIDGE, N. Y.—Arthritis had Grandma Moses into what competent art critics describe as the dawn of contemporary American primitives.

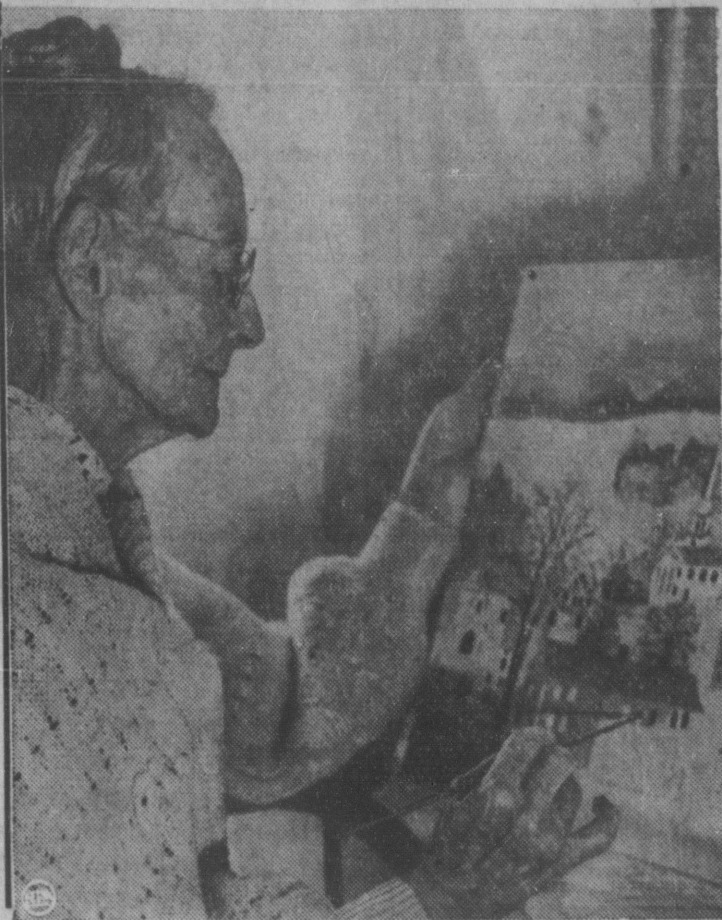

Grandma — more formally Mrs. Anna Mary Robertson Moses, widow of the late Thomas S. — will be 88 on Sept. 7. She has been painting only since she was 76. She has been recognized as an artist only since she was about 82. Yet today her name and fame are known all over the country.

Artists by the hundreds beat a path to her door. Because she is so old, and tires so easily, her son and other relatives have had to turn themselves into a virtual palace guard to keep the crowds away. All this because arthritis made her so lame she couldn't comfortably do housework any more.

Born on a farm in upstate New York, Grandma Moses has spent her life in hard work with a few moments for recreation, amusement and private hobbies. One of a family of 10 children, she started helping her mother at an early age and, when only 14, she left home to work and care for an elderly couple.

Following her marriage at the age of 27 to Thomas S. Moses, a Virginia farmer, her days and years were spent in rearing her own family of 10 children.

After 19 years in the Old Dominion, Mrs. Moses returned to New York where she now lives on an upstate farm run by her youngest son Hugh and his wife Dorothy. Here part of the load of farm work to which she was accustomed was lifted from her shoulders. But she still kept busy sewing and cleaning, cooking and making preserves and picking berries in the summertime.

Grandma Moses' painting formula is simplicity

At 76, however, spells of arthritis began to make strenuous work too painful, and Grandma Moses had to give up most of her jobs around the house. It was then that she felt the need for an outlet for her unspent energy and her still active imagination.

So Grandma took up painting. What followed is an amazing success story. Only this time it is a frail old lady who, after a lifetime of humble privacy, stepped into the public limelight almost overnight.

It was virtually by accident. Her pictures, which she had been either giving away or displaying in a village drugstore, were taken to New York by friends and exhibited in a one-man show. They were an almost immediate hit.

Today, museums and private collections all over the country own her works and a "genuine Moses" is highly valued by collectors.

The appeal of Grandma Moses' works seems to lie in their simplicity. And this at a time when the emphasis in art is on the abstract and psychological.

Mrs. Moses' naive and forceful paintings of landscapes have gained the following of art lovers who, after trying to see the beauty and deep meaning of many a modern work of art, have said, "We do not understand."

As would be suspected from her typical landscapes and straightforward works, Grandma Moses is not a sophisticate. She has grown old gracefully.

With her gray hair piled on top of her oval-shaped head and tied in neat knots, plain rimless glasses with straight thin ear pieces resting on her long, straight nose, which adds grace to her wrinkled face, Grandma looks the typical octogenarian.

Her wardrobe consists chiefly of gingham and calicos, and she prefers to wear gaily flowered aprons over them. While painting she is never without her sweater-type shawl.

Watching her go about on the hillside on which her house is built, the observer feels that Grandma is a part of the nature that surrounds her. She continually stoops to pick tiny flowers or flick away a dead leaf. Then again she will stop and point out to her visitor the far-away hills she has so often painted.

For Grandma Moses, life began at 72.

Ancient Egypt Also Had Daily Horoscopes

CAIRO—An ancient Egyptian horoscope dating back to 1286 B. C., or 3,234 years ago, has been sent for reading at an orientalist conference in Paris.

The horoscope is written on a papyrus scroll eight yards long and seven inches wide. It was translated by Dr. Abdul Bakir.

The papyrus, in the form of a calendar, tells ancient Egyptians that each day of the year is favorable for certain actions. It also lists things that should not be done on certain days. The scribe likewise seemed to know the length of every day in the year.

The names of the months are identical with those of the Coptic calendar, still in use among Egyptian farmers.

Although a 12-month calendar was in use at the time, the author of the papyrus adds a thirteenth. That means to archaeologists that the ancient Egyptians found it necessary to add one month every few years.

The calendar lists the Nile flood festival, which is still celebrated every year, and is known as the Cutting of the Khalig.

COLUMBIANA SIGN DAMAGED IN CRASH

Traffic Light Standard Is Hit By Car On Monday Morning

COLUMBIANA, Aug. 24—The light standard and highway sign board in the center of the public square was damaged when an unidentified motorist crashed into it about 2:45 a. m., Monday.

Proceeding west on E. Park avenue, the driver had applied his brakes at the east side of the square, tracks on the pavement indicated. Guests in the Park hotel were aroused by the crash. The driver was able to proceed and was not apprehended. It is supposed that he had fallen asleep, as the fog was not dense until after daylight. The city electric department repaired the sign board, which was twisted part way round.

Shippers Get Better Service

Columbiana shippers are benefited by the better service afforded through a change by the Pennsylvania railroad in its local shifter run. One crew making the round trip every day previously took care of the shifting between Alliance and East Palestine. Under the new set-up, the run has been extended to Conway, Pa., and two crews put on, each making a daily run one way.

Labana Hetrick, south of town, who was burned by gasoline Friday evening, had to be detained in Salem City hospital a few days longer than had been expected, but is reported to be getting along All right. Mrs. C. Ray Todd and daughter, Sarah, left Sunday morning on a trip to Miami, Fla. They were to be joined at Baltimore by their son and brother, Staff Sergeant Robert Todd, who is being transferred to Tampa, Fla.

Ride Is Enjoyed

Thirty-five members of the Columbiana Saddle & Bridle club took part in a ride Sunday afternoon from the home of Leonard Porter on South ave. extension in the vicinity of Southern park. After the ride, which took in the area to Poland, the riders enjoyed a picnic supper at the Porter home. The next meeting of the club will be Monday evening, Sept. 15.

About 4,000 square feet of slate roof in the center of the High school building, which had developed a leaky condition, is being replaced with built-up black-top.

Leona Sanor Is Bride At N. Georgetown

Before an altar of gladioli and ferns, Miss Leona Pay Sanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Sanor, became the bride of Kenneth J. Reichenbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reichenbach, at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in the new home of the bride's sister, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Blackburn. The families are all of North Georgetown.

Tall tapers in candelabra lighted the scene presided over by Rev. E. L. Wagner, pastor of the North Georgetown Lutheran church, who heard the exchange of vows in the double ring ceremony.

The love songs, "Because" and "I Love You Truly" and the traditional wedding marches were played as the wedding party came to the altar. The bride was escorted by her father.

Powder blue satin, styled in street length fashion, made the bride's wedding frock, complemented by a colonial bouquet of white roses, with an orchid center. She also wore the groom's gift, a gold clustered lavallere with matching earrings.

The couple were attended by Mrs. Blackburn, as matron of honor, who wore brown crepe and carried a bouquet similar to her sister's but made of yellow roses and baby mums. Gene Reichenbach served his brother as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sanor wore a green crepe dress, while Mrs. Reichenbach was attired in black flowered crepe. Each had a corsage of white carnations.

The immediate families, who were the only witnesses to the service, were served refreshments by aunts of the bride, Mrs. Carl Sanor and Miss Pearl Sanor. The wedding cake was the center of attraction at the table.

For their honeymoon to Virginia Beach, Va., Mrs. Sanor was attractive in a brown and beige suit, and wore her orchid from the bouquet.

The newlyweds are both graduates of Goshen High school and he is an army veteran with three years service, having spent some time in the European theater. Mr. Sanor is associated with his father in the Chevrolet service at North Georgetown.

They will make their home in their newly-furnished apartment near his work.

Miss Woina Bride In New York City

Mr. and Mrs. Woina and son Terry spent the week in New York City and attended in the nuptial festivities.

The unusual wedding dress, which was copied by DePinna, was styled with fitted bodice with bouffant skirt fashioned of bluish Chantilly lace over a self-colored slip. Shoulder wings, of the style of that day, were interlaced with seed pearls, as was the twisted headress from which fell a hip-length veil. Heavy, only-blue orchids and stephanotis complemented her costume.

Mrs. Paul Bogatko of Jersey City attended her sister as matron of honor in a similar gown of heavenly-blue lacy over bluish, styled from the same era. She carried orchids and stephanotis.

The best man, a class mate of the groom's, was Hugh Ferron, also of New York City.

To Unite After a Lapse of 48 Years

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 24—A mother and son who thought each other dead for more than 40 years were rapidly closing the gaps in time today.

Since she arrived in Lincoln yesterday to greet Roscoe V. Pershall, the son from whom she had been separated for 48 years, Mrs. Lulu Swartzlander, 68, of Long Beach, Calif., has visited the place where he works, toured the city and talked with other relatives in the Midwest.

"It doesn't seem real," said Mrs. Swartzlander when she rushed into the arms of her greying 51-year-old son Saturday night.

Pershall's parents separated when he was a child of three and went to live with his father. Both mother and son thought the other dead.

Through a chance conversation last June with a patient at the veteran's hospital where he is employed, Pershall got track of an aunt and sought information about his mother's death. He was stunned to learn she was alive. The reunion was speedily arranged.

"It's not at all uncommon to see people with patched sleeves, or little leather bands sewed around the cuff. They tell me most of the men have one or two shirts.

"Every bit of their clothing looks altered. People look worn, undernourished and uncomfortable. However, they seem to be taking it very well. What they're hoping for I don't know.

"London today is filled with more aged, dirty people than I have ever seen. There's no soap. Towels are mighty scarce.

"I tried one trick, however. Because of its perishable nature, I took some food off the plane to give to friends. I gave my valet a dozen eggs. 'This is more eggs than I've had in two months,' he exclaimed.

"Now I notice that out of nowhere came luxurious towels for my bath... and soap... and in the morning my bath is drawn! I'm leading the life of Riley. I just wish there were a little more food on the plates.

"Nationalization of everything? Socialism Experiment

"To be frank, I don't think the Socialistic scheme is bearing the fruit Britain sought. And unless it provides more sustenance for the people, the whole thing will end in a sorry mess.

"Every paper I pick up (and they just have three or four sheets) tells of impending cuts in tobacco and cigarettes and other food shortages that are bound to come.

"And every edition carries a message from Cripps that they must work harder or Socialism can't make the grade.

"They'd better chop off about a million bureaucratic employees, spend the money to buy food for the rest and let these people dig in with some productive labor.

"The picture is appalling. The Socialists have just made a new decision that anyone coming to England or living there may have free hospitalization.

"That means an additional 400,000 governmental employees will be needed to execute this order. And they're already short of manpower in practically every industry in the empire!

"All this may be okay. But it isn't the way we do things back home and we're still eating quite well!"

Impromptu Coal Delivery

EAST LIVERPOOL Aug. 24—Robert Tipton, a meat salesman, sought a carpenter to repair a damaged bedroom in his home today after quick delivery of his winter's coal, which was intended for a next-door neighbor, William Van Fossan.

Six tons of fuel were unloaded in Tipton's back yard when a truck smashed into his home a few minutes after his baby son, Bobbie, aged 8 months, had been taken from a bed in the vehicle's path.

Charles Hockenberry, the driver lost control of the truck when its motor stopped on a hillside and it moved backward into the Tipton bedroom.

Wooster Farm Station Clerk Held In Shortage

COLUMBUS, Aug. 24—State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson said today he had held Miss Mabel Martin, former clerk at the Ohio agricultural experiment station at Wooster, responsible for a shortage of $13,910 in the station's funds.

He quoted Miss Martin as exonerating the station management and other employees of "any participation or knowledge of" the discrepancy.

"I would like you to know there has been no possible chance for anyone except myself to have made these errors," he quoted Miss Martin as saying.

Miss Martin retired Sept. 1, 1947. The examination of the station's accounts covered the period from May 1, 1940 to Feb. 28, 1948.

Auditor Ferguson said the examiner's report would be turned over to the prosecuting attorney of Wayne county. He said Leo L. Rummell who became director of the station last Jan. 1, and state examiners have worked out a series of recommendations for new practices of handling cash.

The auditor said Miss Martin handled all cash sales but failed to record various sales slips or deposit cash collected on such sales.

MAYOR FINES SON ON DRIVING CHARGE

DOVER, Aug. 24—Father met son in the Dover Mayor's court—and the son was the loser by $100 and costs. That was the fine meted out to 27-year-old George Stucky by his father, Mayor Harry Stucky, when George pleaded guilty yesterday to driving while intoxicated.

The younger Stucky's borrowed car went over a four-foot wall, caught fire and was destroyed, with the driver escaping serious injury.

School Problem Better: Shortage Still Exists

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—The nation's public school system has hit the comeback trail, but still doesn't have all the teachers and classroom space it needs to handle an expected 32,000,000 students this fall.

That was the outlook reported today by Acting Commissioner Rall I. Grigsby of the U. S. Office of Education.

He said a federal survey shows the schools have taken a definite "turn for the better" in the past year.

The shortage of teachers now is limited mainly to kindergarten and grade school levels, particularly in rural districts, he said.

One of the darkest spots in the picture painted by Grigsby is the overcrowding of elementary and secondary school classroom facilities.

He estimated that $6,000,000,000 worth of new buildings is needed to handle the expanded student populations.

Lindbergh Book Attacks Scientific Materialism

NEW YORK, Aug. 24—A new book by Charles A. Lindbergh, in which the flyer attacks scientific materialism as threatening to destroy civilization, was published today.

In a slim volume of fewer than 12,000 words, Lindbergh advocates a return to religious values.

Part of the book, titled "Of Flight and Life," is devoted to incidents of the author's air service in the second world war.

One reviewer said that a surprising feature of the book was the "extraordinary literary quality of the writing."

People Operate "Atom City" Paper

RICHLAND, Wash. — In this government-owned "atomic" city there is a newspaper as unusual as the community itself.

The newspaper is owned and operated by a corporation composed of all the people of the city, and city-wide elections are held to choose members of the board of directors who make policies and direct the business of the paper. The name of the corporation is "Villagers, Inc.," and the newspaper is the Richland Villager.

Before the war, Richland was a tiny farming community on the Columbia river with a population of 300. Then came the "Manhattan" project and the United States government in 1943 bought the land where Richland stood and much more, too.

Atomic plants arose on the vast sagebrush lands around Hanford to the north and Richland became the living center for thousands employed on the project. Richland is still expanding and its 1949 population is expected to reach 26,000.

Newspapers spring up just as naturally in an American community as blue grass does in Kentucky and quickly the weekly Richland Villager came into existence as a spontaneous creation of the entire community.

Now, like its community, it is growing and plans to go into daily publication are taking shape. The elected board of 15 directors of Villagers, Inc., is composed of men who came from all parts of the country and represent many professions, such as engineers, chemists, accountants, architects, business men.

All money received by the Villager from advertising and job printing above the cost of operation are set aside in a fund for community enterprises. A town library has been established and donations are made to youth activities, city Christmas decorations, a swimming pool, band concerts, a community sports scoreboard and many others.

The board gives the editor of the Villager wide autonomy and they selected after careful deliberation Ted Best, a native of the state of Washington, formerly editor of the West Seattle Herald and of the Kent, Wash., News-Journal. The original editor who served for the first three years was N. Paul Nissen.

The Villager concentrates on local news and is filled with the names and activities of the city. It's a newsy city, bustling, growing and with many prominent visitors and many community problems. When the Villager becomes a daily

Modern Market To Use Belt Systems

RAHWAY, N. J.—Four brothers who have been in the neighborhood food business here for 22 years are planning a new "super-duper" market that may make the grocery store pushcart vanish from the American scene like the horse and the Indian.

In early September they plan to open the first store using the new "So-E-Z system" invented by Hollis Wooten, Memphis radio executive. It uses a system of belts moving along counter tops to carry the items selected by the housewife and marked with an identifying number.

The four Dembling brothers, Benjamin, David, Bernard and Irving, are planning to open the store in a 38 by 50 building now under construction. They believe that they can operate it without additional help.

How It Works

Here is the way the system operates: A housewife enters the store and selects from a rack a pencil stamped with a number. She shops through the store, selecting her items, writes the same number as is on her pencil on the price tag of each item, and places it on the moving belt.

The system of moving belts is simple. One belt reaches along a center counter the entire length of the store from the meat market in the rear to the checking counter in front. Other belts feed onto it from right angles at convenient distances along the room.

Clerk Checks Up

The items selected by the housewife are carried along the belts to the checking counter, where a clerk picks them up and places them in a bin bearing the same number as the shopper's pencil. He removes the numbered price tags and puts them on a spike for rapid adding when the housewife has completed her shopping.

She surrenders her pencil, pays her bill and is given the packaged items.

The moving belts are powered by a small electric motor.

"No fuss, no waiting, no bother," said Benjamin Dembling.

Changes Effective In Air Postal Regulations

An air postal service law, approved June 29 and effective Sept. 1, provides for a change in the mailing of packages in connection with weight, size and rates for all eight zones.

The zone rates prescribed for parcels carried by air apply to mailable matter of any class weighing over eight ounces and not more than 70 pounds with a size not exceeding 100 inches in length and width combined.

The rates of five cents an ounce will continue to apply to all domestic air mail weighing up to and including eight ounces, regardless of distance or zone. Sealed or unsealed first class matter will not be less than three cents for any fraction of an ounce.

Rates increase four cents for each additional pound exceeding eight ounces for the first and second zones, eight cents for the third, 14 for the fourth, 24 for the fifth, 33 for the sixth, 45 for the seventh and 65 for the eighth.

In Elizabethan England, news-reformers whom they kept informed porters worked exclusively for great matters of interest.

BRAVES DROP BUMS CARDINALS NEXT

Red Sox To Attempt To Drop Indians From Top Rung

The Boston Braves, following the battle plan of the old New York Yankees of knocking off the closest rival, take on the runner-up Cardinals in St. Louis tonight after successfully disposing of a Brooklyn bid for their league leadership.

Billy Southworth's hustling Braves cooled off the Dodgers, 3-2, in 14 innings yesterday to win the series, three games to one.

The loss dropped the Dodgers into third place, the idle Cardinals taking over second, two-and-one-half games behind the Braves.

However, the picture is not so bright for Boston against the Red Birds. The Cardinals have shoved the Braves around recently, winning eight out of their last ten games.

While the Braves attempt to enlarge their margin at the Cards' expense, their American league counterparts, the Red Sox, will be gunning for the top slot in the junior loop.

The American league Boston, a half game behind pace-setting Cleveland, take on the Indians in the opener of a three-game series under the lights at Boston. Right-hander Joe Dobson has been selected to pitch for the Sox and Satchel Paige, aged Negro right-hander, for the Tribe.

Only one other game was played in the National league. The Reds nosed out the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2, in ten innings under the lights at Cincinnati on Relief Pitcher Harry Gumbert's homer, his first hit of the season.

In the lone American league contest, the New York Yankees crushed the last place Chicago White Sox, 11-1, in a night game at New York. The victory was the seventh straight for the Yanks and enabled them to move to within a game of second place Boston and within one-and-a-half games of Cleveland.

Todds, Garlocks In Class B Wins

Red Sox To Attempt To Drop Indians From Top Rung

In the Class B league at Centennial park, Todds virtually slaughtered Corsos with 11 runs on 11 hits to hold its opponents to one hit and a shutout.

Garlocks managed to squeeze past the Men About Town to chalk another victory by the score of 8-7.

The Amvets and their sensational winning streak suffered a scare Monday night, but the league leaders came through with their 23rd consecutive win 1-0 over a pesky Deming team.

With two men on base and none out in the last of the seventh, Deming purposely walked Kirby Laughlin to get at Pitcher Johnny Zines. However, he very unobliquely pumped a single to left field to break up a tight ball game.

On the mound, Zines allowed only two hits, while his team got seven off Kenny Brudery.

The China closed its regular season with an 8-4 win over the Elite Upholsters, thus clinching a spot in the Shaughnessy playoffs.

The V. F. W. topped the Democrats 4-3 and still remain in the playoff race. Both the Vets and Mullins can tie Deming for fourth place by winning their two remaining games.

Hanoverton Beats Off Salem Rally

The Salem Merchants staged a four-run rally in the last half of the ninth, but the Hanoverton American Legion scored one in the second, four in the fourth and one in the sixth to win the ball game, 6-4, Monday evening at the Salem A. C. park.

The Salem Merchant Juniors are scheduled to engage the Leetonia American Legion at 6 p. m. today at the park.

Defending the women's championship will be Mrs. Lela Hall Frank. The crackshot from Sierra Madre, Calif., winner of the title seven times since 1935—but she'll have plenty of opposition from the nation's "dead-eye Doras."

Cliff Doughman of Morro, O., is defending king in the men's division—he broke the entire 200 a year ago—but arrayed against him are such hot-shots as Joe Hiestand of Hillsboro, O., the farmer who has won four times; two-time victor of Walter Beaver of Coshocton, Pa., and scores of others capable of walking off with the coveted cup.

In yesterday's "introductory" 200-target shoot, a warmup for today's classic, 19 of 765 shooters broke the first 100 in a row, and 22 cracked the second 100. Karl Maust, the round ex-Oleian now from Detroit, and Vic Reinders, the University of Wisconsin professor from Waukegan, broke the entire 200.

Top prizes in the opening day's events, however, went to pretty Moselle Cameron of Denver, and E. W. Castaneda of Shreveport, La., who grabbed the "champion of champions" titles in a special 100-target race for state crown wearers.

The Denver crack snuffed all 100 days to defeat Mrs. Frank by two targets, but Castaneda had to break an extra 100 in a row, in a five-way shootout to annex the masculine division. It was no hayride for the Louisiana lad, who was deadlocked by W. C. Perdue of Mobile, Ala., W. Ceek of Clinton, Ind., and Dick Shaughnessy, the skeet star from Derham, Mass.

Perdue went out on the first 25 of the shootout, Morris on the second, and Dick Shaughnessy, the skeet star from Derham, Mass.

Housewives Dip Into Savings To Meet Living Costs

(By United Press)

The average American housewife can barely stretch her husband's paycheck to pay for food, clothing and housing and usually must dip into the family's savings for any extras, a United Press survey indicated today.

Housewives in cities across the country said they had to trim their budgets of every luxury under today's inflated prices.

A choice steak, a fancy dessert, or an extra suit for dad means they must sell a bond saved during the war or watch that much money checked out of their bank book.

They said the recent wave of buyers' strikes hadn't helped the situation but they were still hopeful that retailers would be forced to mark prices down to hold their business.

The answers given by the women indicated that it doesn't make much difference whether their husbands drive a truck, heave a shovel, or push a pencil. If they are in the moderate income group or below the going is rough.

And most of the women said the situation is getting worse as the squeeze between income and prices increases.

Some said they were at wit's end to devise ways to make cheap foods tastier and more nutritious or to make a pair of pants handed down from dad to junior now serve as a pair of slacks for little sister.

Britain Ranks As Top Aid Receiver

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 24-

Britain has received more postwar grants and credits from the rest of the world than any other country, according to United Nations statistics published today.

The figures showed that between May, 1945, June, 1948, government and private financial aid to Britain totaled an equivalent of $6,670,000,000.

In the same period, Britain aided other war-devastated countries with government and private aid totaling an equivalent of $2,450,000,000.

France received the second highest allocation of all countries, with a total of $3,957,000,000. The next largest recipients were the Anglo-American zone of Germany, with $1,876,000,000; Italy, with $1,859,000,000; Poland, with $1,150,000,000 and the Netherlands with $1,054,000,000.

Railroad Time Tables Are Finally Readable

CHICAGO, Ill.—Transcontinental Santa Fe trains now carry time-tables designed to be read with ease by a passenger.

The tables are set up in regular book form with a separate page for each train. It replaces the "read up in right-hand column" for returning trains.

T. B. Gallagher, general passenger traffic manager, said the new tables serve for the line's six trains from Chicago to the West coast.

The old-style tables are used for the short-distance trains. The new tables list mileage, altitudes and explanatory notes in addition to station stops. Various train connections, correct locations to reset watches, river crossings and tunnels are also listed.
